IMMORTAL' NKURUMAH IN CHURCH CONFERENCE

PRESIDENT KWAME NKURUMAH of Ghana, whose followers sing to his immortalization, has come into direct conflict with the Church.

Angry repudiating criticism, he has expelled Anglican Church leaders.

IMMORTAL' NKURUMAH

But there are problems for the Church with its followers in the history of the 'new' Ghana, particularly after its independence in 1957. The Church has been trying to bring the young Africans of Ghana into the mainstream of the country's life, but the Church leaders have been in conflict with the new government.

The Church leaders have been charged with insubordination and sedition, and the government has expelled the Church leaders from the country.

IMMORTAL' NKURUMAH

In April, all the leaders of the Church of Ghana were expelled from the country, according to the principles of the 'new' Ghana. The Church leaders were accused of insubordination and sedition.

The Church leaders have been expelled from the country, and the Church has been left with a lot of problems to face. The Church leaders are not sure if they will ever be allowed to return to the country. IMMORTAL' NKURUMAH

President Kwame Nkrumah

The Church leaders have been charged with insubordination and sedition, and the government has expelled the Church leaders from the country. The Church leaders are not sure if they will ever be allowed to return to the country. The Church has been left with a lot of problems to face.